CAUTION: THIS DOCUMENT IS NOT OFFICIAL UNLESS EMBOSSED WITH THE COURT SEAL

Pursuant to Judiciary Law § 212.2(z), a certificate of disposition for the public contains only records of convictions, if any, and information about pending cases.

Charges shown may not be the same as the original arrest charges

Marijuana convictions under PL § 221.05 or 221.10 are vacated, dismissed and expunged as of August 28, 2019. The court system is in the process of updating its records, but in the meantime, it is an unlawful discriminatory practice, unless specifically required or permitted by statute, for any entity to make any inquiry about an expunged conviction or to use an expunged conviction adversely, whether in any form of application or otherwise, against such individual.

Pursuant to section 70.15 of the Penal Law, any misdemeanor sentence with a jail term of "1 year", "12 months", "52 weeks", or "365 days" is, by operation of law, deemed to be a sentence of 364 days. Any Certificate of Disposition indicating a jail sentence of "1 years", "12 months", "52 weeks", or "365 days" for a misdemeanor conviction shall be interpreted as a sentence of 364 days.

CPL 160.55: Official records related to the arrest and prosecution on file with the Division of Criminal Justice Services, police agencies and/or the prosecutor's office are sealed, however, court records remain available for public inspection.

It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice, unless specifically required or permitted by statute, for any person, agency, bureau, corporation or association, including the state and any political subdivision thereof, to make any inquiry about, whether in any form of application or otherwise, or to act upon adversely to the individual involved, any arrest or criminal accusation of such individual not then pending against that individual which was followed by a termination of that criminal action or proceeding in favor of such individual, as defined in subdivision two of section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law, or by a youthful offender adjudication, as defined in subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, or by a conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 160.55 of the criminal procedure law or by a conviction which is sealed pursuant to section 160.58 or 160.59 of the criminal procedure law, in connection with the licensing, employment or providing of credit or insurance to such individual; provided, further, that no person shall be required to divulge information pertaining to any arrest or criminal accusation of such individual not then pending against that individual which was followed by a termination of that criminal action or proceeding in favor of such individual, as defined in subdivision two of section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law, or by a youthful offender adjudication, as defined in subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, or by a conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 160.55 of the criminal procedure law, or by a conviction which is sealed pursuant to section 160.58 or 160.59 of the criminal procedure law. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to the licensing activities of governmental bodies in relation to the regulation of guns, firearms and other deadly weapons or in relation to an application for employment as a police officer or peace officer as those terms are defined in subdivisions thirty-three and thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law; provided further that the provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to an application for employment or membership in any law enforcement agency with respect to any arrest or criminal accusation which was followed by a youthful offender adjudication, as defined in subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, or by a conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 160.55 of the criminal procedure law, or by a conviction which is sealed pursuant to section 160.58 or 160.59 of the criminal procedure law.
